Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle will entertain at a luncheon tomorrow in honor of Mrs. Simms.

Mrs. J. A. Reeves will entertain at an Orpheum party, followed by a luncheon, this afternoon, in honor of Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, and Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford Gallup, who is visiting here from San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. Rich will entertain six at a box party at the Orpheum Thursday evening, to be followed by a luncheon.

Miss Marjorie Dey will entertain at cards this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Edward B. Sterling of Portland, Or., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Bird.

Mrs. Joseph Richards will entertain at cards this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Edward B. Sterling of Portland, Or., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Bird.

Mrs. C. B. Onderdonk will entertain this afternoon at her apartments in the Kensington flats, in honor of Mrs. Stephen of Cincinnati, O., who is visiting Mrs. Elbridge Thomas.

Mrs. Glen Miller will entertain at an informal bridge party this afternoon at her home on E street.

A quiet home wedding Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock was that of Miss Zola McCoy and Lansing M. Foote of Evanston, Wyo. Only the families were at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Young, but a large reception followed. Miss McCoy wore white silk and carried white bride's roses. Her only attendant was Miss Lena Rives, in pink mulle, who carried pink carnations. Donald Foote acted as best man. The bride's cousin, Miss Crete Coursey of Ogden, played the wedding march. The house was profusely decorated in pink and white carnations. The bride party stood under a canopy of them. During the reception the punch was served in the library by Miss Pearl Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Foote left on the late train for the East. Her traveling dress was tan with hat to match. They will be at home after September 1, in Evanston, Wyo.

The Misses Pearl and Nora Van Cott entertained eight at a dinner at their home last evening in honor of Miss Jenna Budd Geddes and the young ladies of her bridal party. The table was heavily decorated in pink and white sweet peas with a large basket of them for the centerpiece, and pink tulle and smilax going from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. The favors were small dolls, dressed in pink, for the guests, and a doll in bridal costume for Miss Geddes.

Miss Lielah Sjodahl entertained six tables at cards yesterday in honor of Miss Florence Madison, who will be married September 1. The house was profusely decorated in red hearts and various flowers, the hall in golden glow, the library in white dahlias, and the parlor and dining room in pink sweet peas. Prizes were won by Miss Carrie Patrick and Miss Irene Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Madison have issued a large number of invitations for the wedding reception of their daughter, Florence, and Oliver R. Meredith, Jr., Wednesday evening, September 4, at their home, 615 East First South street.

Miss Kate Kanters and Walter Trent, both former members of Salt Lake society, were married yesterday in Sacramento, Cal., and will make their home in Reno, Nev., where Mr. Trent is in business.

Miss Dagmar White and Charles Austin Gaines, a popular member of the University club here, were married in the First Methodist church at Berkeley, Cal., yesterday.

Mrs. C. Ryan, accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Kinney and Miss Hazel Ryan, have returned from a month spent in St. Paul and Minneapolis, and are at home to their friends at 805 East Thirtieth South.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherwood are entertaining her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Bliss of Ann Arbor, Mich., at their home on State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James Lowe announce the engagement of their daughter, Lita, to J. Ray Carson. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Hooper C. Dunbar entertained at a dinner at the Alta club last evening, in honor of his best man and ushers, for his wedding, this evening.

Russel Tracy has returned from several weeks spent in the Pacific Northwest. Mrs. Tracy and son, Russel, will return about September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Porter entertained at an informal dinner last evening. Covers were laid for six. The decorations were sweet peas.

Howard Stansbury of Mexico is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux at their home on E street.

Hamilton Coffin of Seattle is spending a few days with his father, C. E. Coffin, on East Second South street.

Mrs. W. H. McIntyre and daughters have returned from a trip of several weeks through Yellowstone park.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, who have returned here to live, are now at the Fifth East hotel.

Miss Freddie DuChene has just returned from a trip to Minneapolis, Minn., her old home.

Miss Bella Blyth will leave soon for her home in Wyoming, after visiting Mrs. Jack Keith.

Kenneth McIntyre has returned from visiting at the Howard cottage in Brighton.

Miss Irene Morrison is expected home this week from spending the summer in the East.

BESSIE ERICKSON BECOMES MRS. WALTER CORBIN

The wedding of Walter Corbin and Miss Bessie Erickson was solemnized at 427 H street, this city, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. D. A. Brown of the First Baptist church officiating. Both are well known in this city. Mr. Corbin was formerly in the employ of the Western Arms and Sporting Goods company but is now in the service of the Bingham Consolidated Mining company at Lark, Utah, where the happy couple will make their home.

CITY REAL ESTATE IS SOLD AT AUCTION

Real estate belonging to Salt Lake City was sold at public auction by Land and Water Commissioner Frank M. Mathews Tuesday morning. The real estate in question and the names of the bidders, together with the price paid, follows: Five lots in block 3, City Creek canyon, to A. C. Ellis, Jr., $3250.
